JULY 2019

Motto of the Year: Year of Discipleship

“Go therefore and make disciples of all nations... and remember, I am with you always,
to the end of the age”

Matthew 28: 19, 20b

How the Apostles died ?

Simon Peter: Simon-Peter was martyred in Rome during the reign of the emperor Nero. As the story goes, Peter asked to be crucified upside down, so that his death would not be the equal of Jesus and the Romans supposedly obliged.

Andrew: Andrew went to Greece in 69 AD, where the Roman proconsul Aegeates tried to convince Andrew to forsake Christianity, so that he would not have to torture and execute him. But when that didn't work, Andrew was scourged, and then tied rather than nailed to a cross, so that he would suffer for a longer time before dying. Andrew lived for two days, during which he preached to passersby.

James (son of Zebedee): Acts 12:1-19 says that James was killed with a sword. When James was arrested and led to place of execution, his unnamed accuser was moved by his courage. He not only repented and converted on the spot, but asked to be executed alongside James. The Roman executioners obliged, and both men were beheaded simultaneously.

John: John was the only one of the original disciples not to die a violent death. Instead, he passed away peacefully in Patmos in his old age, sometime around 100 AD.

- Philip: Philip, the first of Jesus' disciples, became a missionary in Asia. Eventually, he traveled to the Egyptian city of Heliopolis, where he was scourged, thrown into prison, and crucified in 54 AD.

- Bartholomew: Bartholomew supposedly preached in several countries, including India, where he translated the Gospel of Matthew for believers. In one account, "impatient idolaters" beat Bartholomew and then crucified him, while in another, he was skinned alive and then beheaded.

- Thomas: Apparently Thomas preached the gospel in Greece and India, where he angered local religious authorities, who martyred him by running him through with a spear.

- Matthew: According to legend, the former tax collector turned missionary was martyred in Ethiopia, where he was supposedly stabbed in the back by a swordsman sent by King Hertacus.

- James (son of Alphaeus, AKA James the Less): According to Foxe, James, who was elected by his fellow believers to head the churches of Jerusalem, was one of the longest-lived apostles, perhaps exceeded only by John. At the age of 94, he was beaten and stoned by persecutors, and then killed him by hitting him in the head with a club.

- Judas or Jude: According to several stories, he was crucified at Edessa (the name of cities in both Turkey and Greece) in 72 AD.

- Simon the Canaanite AKA the Zealot: Simon preached in Mauritania on the west coast of Africa, and then went to England, where he was crucified in 74 AD.

- Judas Iscariot: According to Matthew 27:3-6, the treacherous apostle quickly felt remorse over his betrayal of Jesus and went to the Temple to recant. When the high priests ignored his plea, he threw down the 30 pieces of silver that he had been paid and went off and hanged himself. But Acts 1:15-20, gives a different and even grislier version of Judas' demise. He says that Judas used the blood money to purchase a piece of land and then fell headlong from a high place there, so that "he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out." Jerusalem residents subsequently named the place Aceldama, which means "the field of blood."

The love of all loves

What marvelous love the father has extended to us,

Greetings to you all in the matchless name of our lord and savior Jesus Christ. There is no greater joy in life than to know that God is our loving Father, yet many people, including those within the Church, have not experienced this unspeakable joy. Many have been wounded by their earthly fathers and, as a result, project their own experience of fatherhood onto God the Father. They then create God in their earthly father's image—seeing God as an absent or abandoning parent. Others have a picture of God as a distant and vengeful Father.

None of this is an accurate representation of the picture that Jesus paints. Jesus came to reveal the marvelous love of the Father. Yes God is King. Yes God is Lord. Yes God is Judge. But pre-eminently He is the Father who loved this orphaned planet so deeply that He sent His one and only Son to turn slaves into sons and orphans into heirs. This is the highest blessing of all—to know that God is the world's greatest Father. If you have lacked a good father on earth, know this: you have a perfect Father in Heaven and He has extended His marvelous love to you in Jesus.

Yours lovingly,

Princeachen.
