Rev. Sandeep Jacob

From Achen's Desk

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,
Grace and peace to you in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ!
With a heart full of gratitude and humility, I write to you for the first time as the Presbyter of Emmanuel CSI Church Philadelphia. It is with deep reverence and joy that I begin this journey with you, and I thank God for the privilege of serving this beautiful community. I understand that this parish is a place where faith, family, and community are deeply cherished, and I look forward to walking alongside each of you as we grow together in Christ.

In June, we celebrate World Environment Day on June 5. Pope Francis, in his encyclical Laudato Si', reminds us that the Earth is "our common home." As faithful stewards, we are called not only to enjoy the beauty of creation but to protect it for future generations. Whether it's through reducing waste, supporting local efforts to preserve natural resources, or simply appreciating the wonder of God's handiwork in nature, we all have a role to play. I encourage us as a parish to be mindful of how we, together, can promote sustainability and environmental justice. Let us be known as a people who care not only for souls but also for the sacred gift of our environment.

This month also brings Father's Day, a time to honor the men who have guided, protected, and nurtured us. Whether they are our biological fathers, grandfathers, godfathers, spiritual mentors, or men who have played a fatherly role in our lives, we give thanks for their love and strength. Let us remember them in our prayers, especially those who have gone before us into eternal rest. St. Joseph, the foster father of Jesus is a model of quiet strength and faithful service.

May God bless you and your families abundantly, and may our parish continue to grow as a light to the world.

With prayerful affection,
Rev. Sandeep Jacob.
